Forward-Looking Statements

These materials contain “forward-looking statements” as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they are based only on management’s current beliefs, expectations, and assumptions regarding the future of our business, future plans and strategies, projections, anticipated events and trends, the economy, and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are difficult to predict, and many are outside of our control. Important factors that could cause our actual results and financial condition to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements include our failure to consummate the DRG acquisition as a result of a failure to obtain the necessary approval of PEL shareholders, over which we have no control, a failure to obtain necessary antitrust clearances, or otherwise; our failure to refinance borrowings under the bridge loan facility referred to above because of an inability to raise sufficient equity or debt capital or otherwise, which would likely materially increase our costs of financing the DRG acquisition and result in our failure to achieve the financial benefits we anticipate; our failure to achieve the anticipated cost and revenue synergies from the DRG acquisition; as well as the factors discussed under the caption “Risk Factors” in the prospectus Clarivate filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on December 6, 2019, along with our other filings with the SEC. However, those factors should not be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements are based only on information currently available to our management and speak only as of the date of this press release. We do not assume any obligation to publicly provide revisions or updates to any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, should circumstances change, except as otherwise required by securities and other applicable laws. Please consult our public filings with the SEC or on our website at www.clarivate.com.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The non-GAAP financial measures discussed herein are not recognized terms under, and should not be considered as a substitute for, financial measures calculated in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”). Our definitions of and method of calculating non-GAAP financial measures may vary from the definitions and methods used by other companies, which may limit their usefulness as a comparative measure. Our presentation of non-GAAP financial measures should not be construed as an inference that our future results will be unaffected by any of the adjusted items, or that our projections and estimates will be realized in their entirety or at all. In addition, because of these limitations, non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered as measures of liquidity or discretionary cash available to us to fund our cash needs, including investing in the growth of our business and meeting our obligations. See the Appendix for definitions of the non-GAAP measures used herein and a reconciliation to the most directly comparable GAAP measures.
